Parent Permission & Signature: _____

has my permission to attend the Columbia Presbyterian Church High School Work Camp, July 18 - 24, 2010, at Flying H Ranch in Naches, Washington. I understand that in the unlikely event that my child fails to comply with the rules, I may be required to come and pick him or her up.

ALL students will need a signed Medical Release Form for the 2009-2010 School Year

Student Signature: _____

As part of this year's Mission Trip I am prepared to have the time of my life. I will fully and positively participate in all parts of the program, actively giving of myself. I will be fully responsible for all of my actions and will live in accordance to the guidelines given. I understand that if while on the trip I violate any guidelines, I, at the discretion of the leadership, may be sent home at my parent's expense and will forfeit the entire cost of the retreat.

The Small Print: "In the event money collected for this event exceeds the cost of the event, funds will be used to defray other expenses of the CPC Youth Ministry Team. This form also gives us permission to display your child's image in our slide shows and PR."

09-10 Medical Release Form

The Place:

Flying H Boys Ranch

Located in Central Washington, outside of Yakima near the town of Naches, Flying H is a Year-Round Boarding School. Over the past 40 years they have cared for more than 1,000 teen boys. Their goal is to help boys and their families rebuild their lives all in the context of a saving relationship with Christ.

www.flyingh.org

The Goal:

We will spend the week in ministry to the boys by spending time with them, working on the ranch, playing in the great outdoors, growing in our relationship with Christ, and all done for the Glory of God!

We will also work your tail off, from digging holes to pouring concrete, painting buildings, maybe even falling trees!

The Necessities:

- Work duds - (aka work clothes) long pants, closed toed shoes, gloves, socks, t-shirts, tank tops (no spaghetti) straps, hat
- Clean duds (aka clean clothes)
- Sun Screen
- Toiletries
- Swimsuit (one piece ladies!)
- Warm Jacket
- Sleeping bag
- Bible and pen
